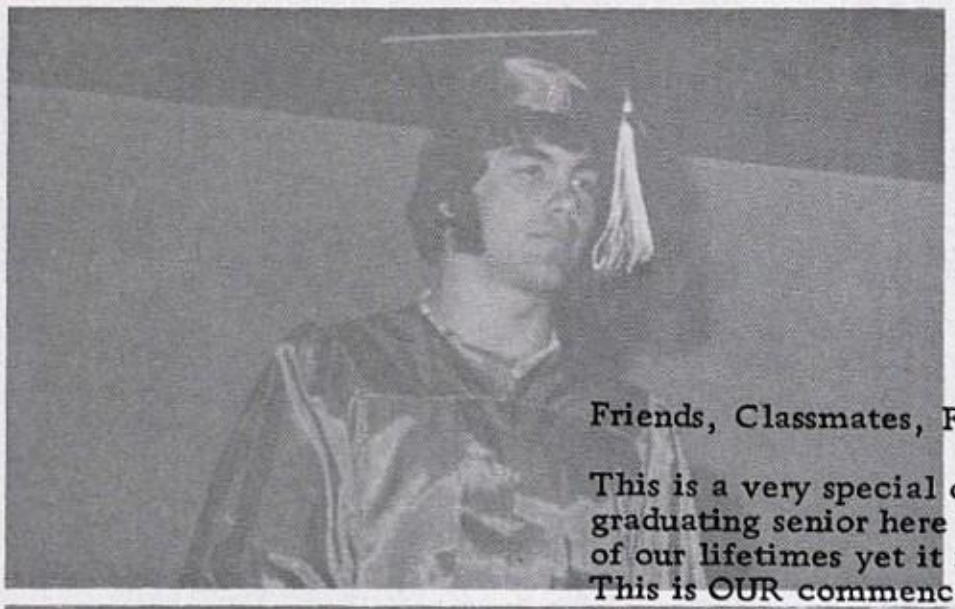
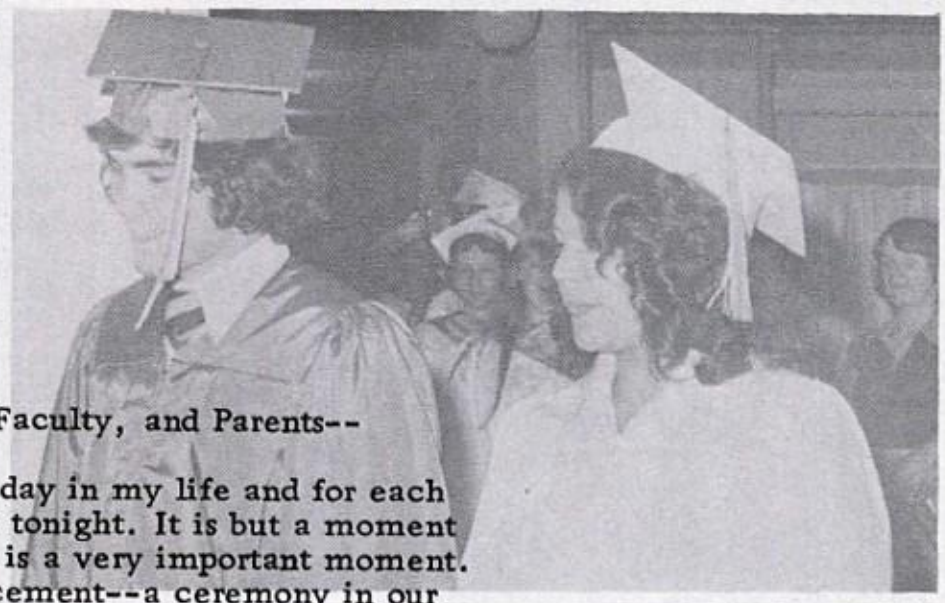
COMMENCEMENT

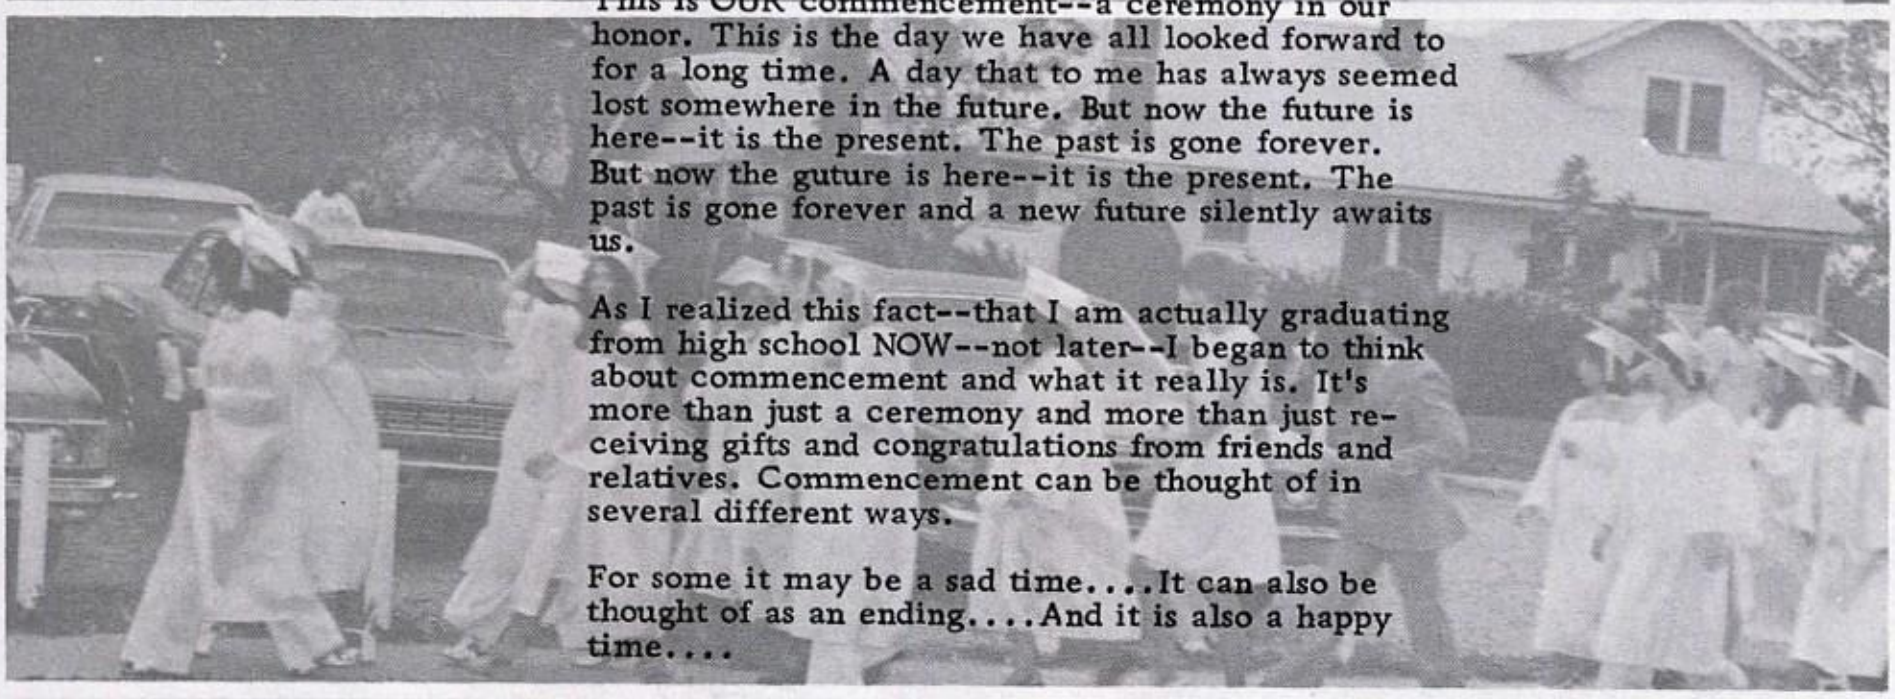
MUST LEAVE ANOTHER UNEXPLORED . . .





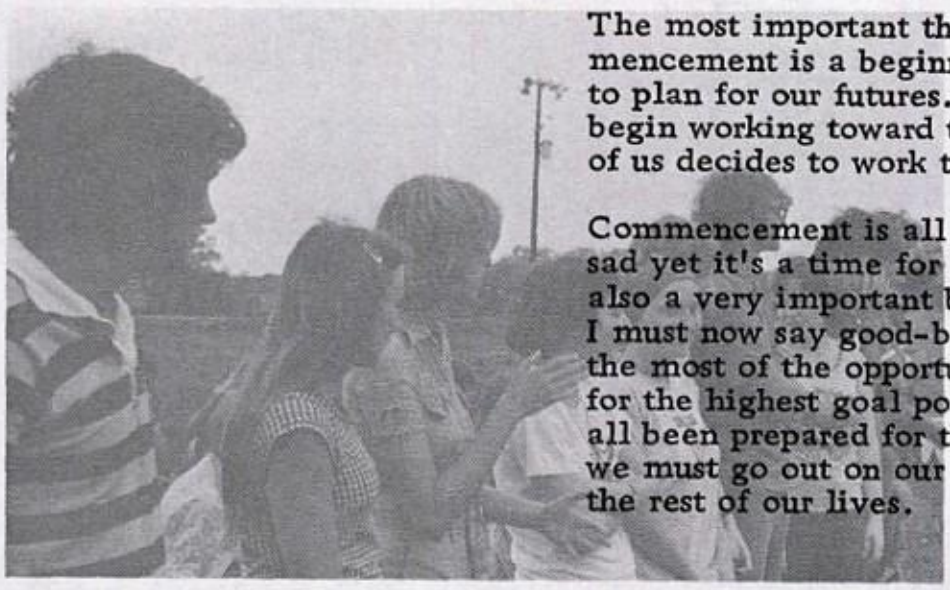
Friends, Classmates, Faculty, and Parents--

This is a very special day in my life and for each graduating senior here tonight. It is but a moment of our lifetimes yet it is a very important moment. This is OUR commencement--a ceremony in our honor. This is the day we have all looked forward to for a long time. A day that to me has always seemed lost somewhere in the future. But now the future is here--it is the present. The past is gone forever. But now the guture is here--it is the present. The past is gone forever and a new future silently awaits us.

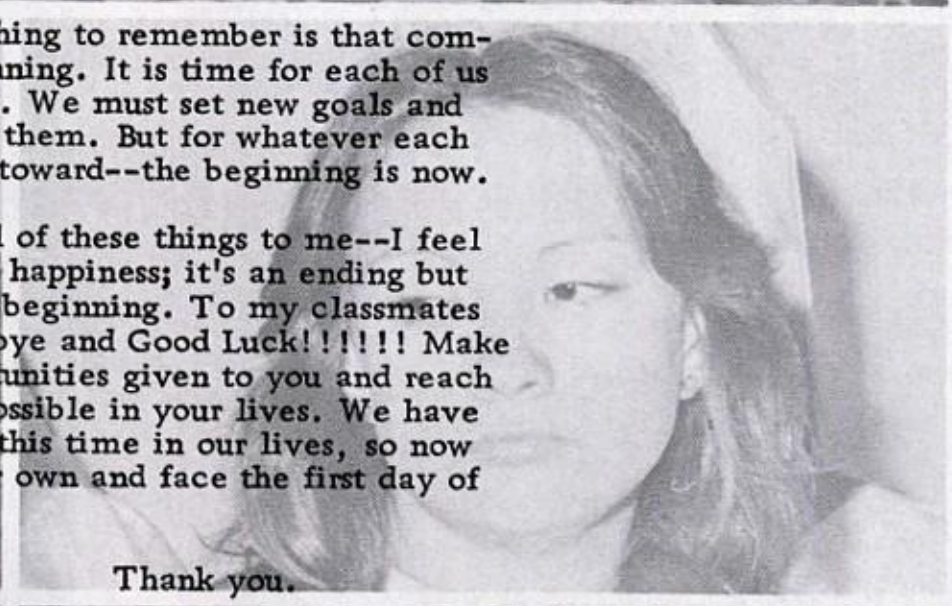


As I realized this fact--that I am actually graduating from high school NOW--not later--I began to think about commencement and what it really is. It's more than just a ceremony and more than just receiving gifts and congratulations from friends and relatives. Commencement can be thought of in several different ways.

For some it may be a sad time....It can also be thought of as an ending....And it is also a happy time....

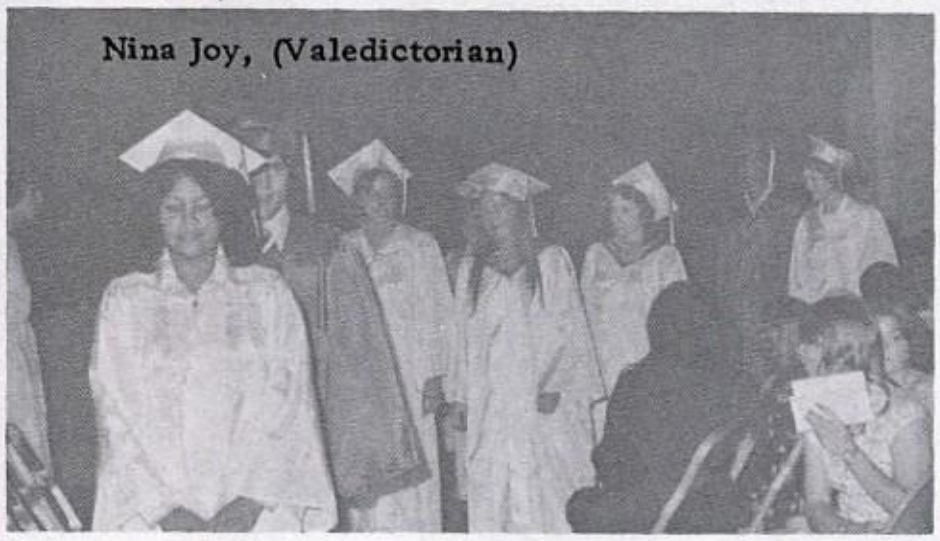


The most important thing to remember is that commencement is a beginning. It is time for each of us to plan for our futures. We must set new goals and begin working toward them. But for whatever each of us decides to work toward--the beginning is now.



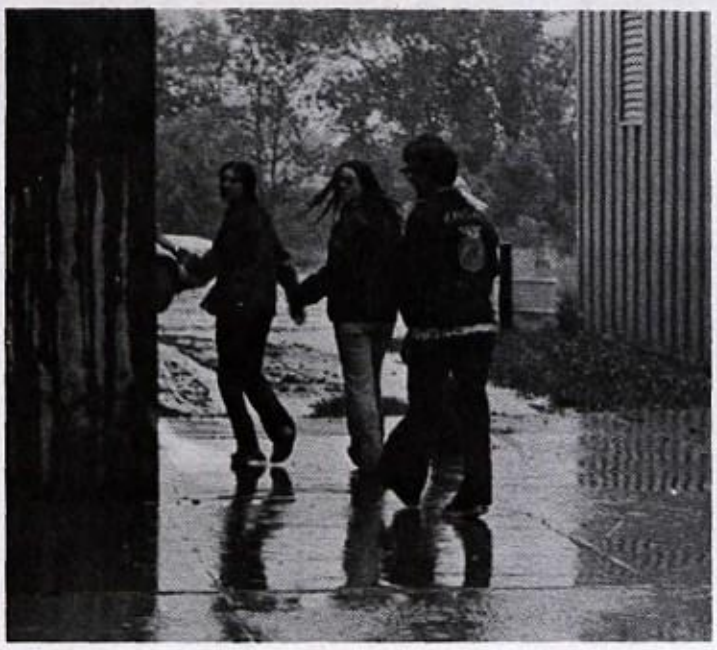
Commencement is all of these things to me--I feel sad yet it's a time for happiness; it's an ending but also a very important beginning. To my classmates I must now say good-bye and Good Luck!!!!!! Make the most of the opportunities given to you and reach for the highest goal possible in your lives. We have all been prepared for this time in our lives, so now we must go out on our own and face the first day of the rest of our lives.

Thank you.



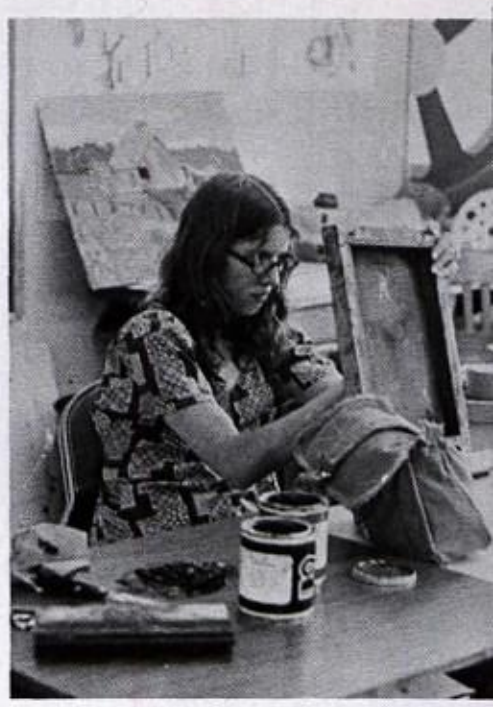
Nina Joy, (Valedictorian)

MAY 16, 1977



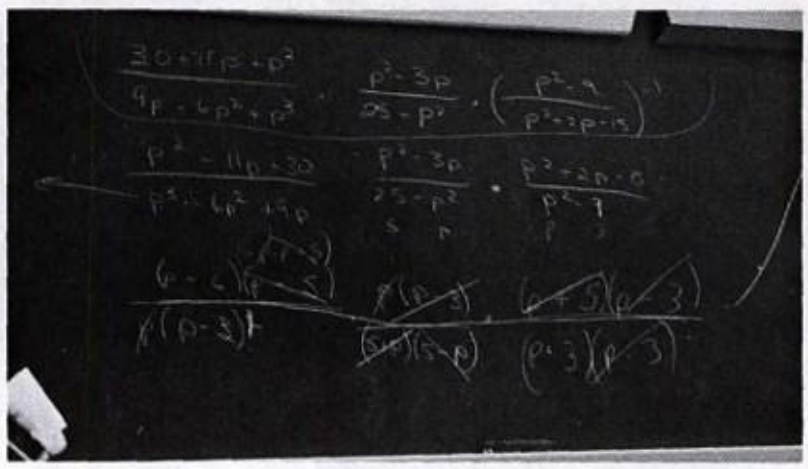
"Can't you see it's raining?"

"Pet him. He won't bite."



"What's wrong here?"

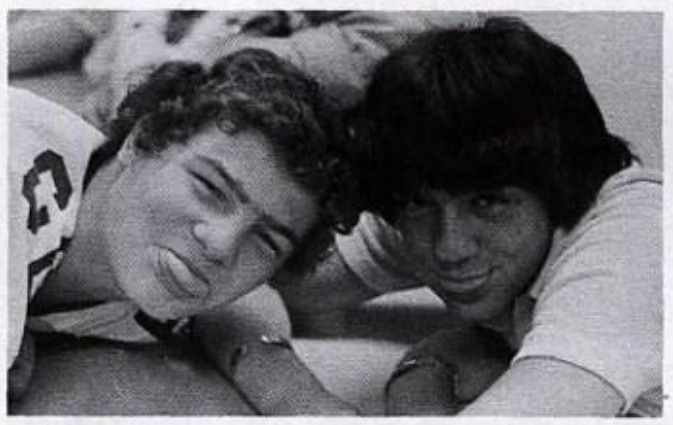
"What a mess!"



"WHAT?"

Cheer up!

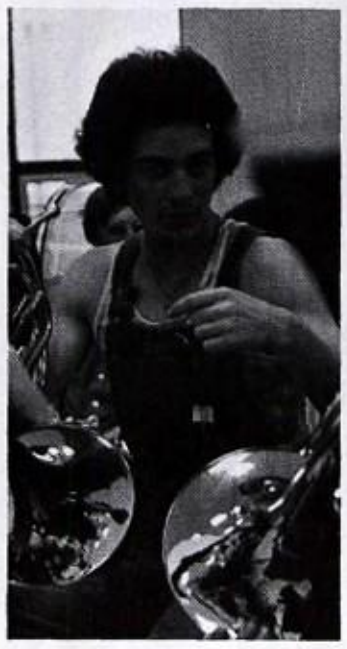
"Hello, Mom?"



Wise guys!

"HUH?"

"But, I didn't do it Mr. Simecka."



"Who me?"

"Don't look, Teresa!"

Join the people who've joined the Army

Since the end of the draft a lot of young people are discovering a good place to invest their time. The Army.

They've come, over 275,000 strong, for things they may not have found anywhere else. Some came for the job training. Where else can you get your choice of hundreds of good jobs? Some, for the chance to travel. Where else can you get to go almost anywhere in the world?

Some can for the personal challenge. Where else can you get as much responsibility right out of high school? Some, for education. Where else can you get such a good head start on college? (With up to 75% of your tuition and fees for approved courses paid for while you're in the Army, and 36 months of financial assistance at colleges throughout the country when your enlistment's over.)

Some came for the financial rewards. Where else can you get a starting salary of $374.40 a month (before deductions) and a raise to $417.30 in just six months? (Plus free meals, housing, medical and dental care, a 30-day paid vacation every year, and low cost transportation to help you enjoy it.)

And some came for a different kind of reward. Where else can you do a service to yourself while you're being of service to your Country?

FAREWELL TO SENIORS OF "77"

Seniors of 77, made a big difference to this school.
Some of them were good, and some were just plain fools.
They all stuck together, as one big class.
And wherever they went, they made sure they had a blast.
To them of 77, we will always miss you.
After all, you are a humorous class to lose.
If many of you go on, to school for a future career,
And something goes wrong you fail, remember there is always a place for you here.
You can always come to us, to tell your funny jokes.
And if they aren't too bad, we will tell them to our folks.
Keep your spirits high, and go on as far as you can.
Because now a girl becomes a lady, and a boy becomes a man.
You all have a lot of things, going in your favor.
Don't ever give up, just keep on getting braver.
Most of the fun times are over now.
You have to make a living, or at least learn how.
Because the day is drawing near, when you will be out on your own.
But always remember us here, and the great times to us you've shown.
God Bless You All!
